also be granted for the removal of matti, hunal and jambe wood, as the present rules permit licenses being issued only for jungle wood, which is not useful for house building.

SUBJECT No. 554.

Building materials for malnad ryots.

Mr. C. Srinivasa Rao, Chikmagalur taluk.

Summary of Representation.—There is a growing belief that the Forest department will modify the present rules for granting building materials to malnad ryots. If it is true, it is prayed that the existing rules may continue.

SUBJECT No. 555.

Sale of minor forest produce.

Messrs. B. Venkata Subbannachar, Agumbe Rama Rao, Thammaiya Bhatta and Devangi Ramannagowda, Tirthahalli taluk.

Summary of Representation.—Minor forest produce except seegekayi, alalekayi, honey, and dhupadakayi are required for the use of the agriculturists. The sale of these products may be put a stop to.

AGRICULTURE.

(No. 556.)

SUBJECT No. 556.

Honge trees.

Messrs. Hanumanthappa, and Khadreppa, Sidlaghatta taluk.

Summary of Representation.—As honge leaves are largely used as manure, ryots may be encouraged to grow them in Government waste lands. They may be taken over by Government finally on payment of small sums as bonuses at the rate of Rs. 5 per 100 trees.

INDUSTRIES AND COMMERCE.

(No. 557.)

SUBJECT No. 557.

Instructions in schools re the use of certain fruits.

Mr. Sidde Gowda, Mudgere taluk.

Summary of Representation.—Lime, orange, and citron fruits are largely grown in malnad. Their uses are not known. It is prayed that arrangements may be made for giving instruction in malnad schools about their uses.

EDUCATION.

(No. 558 to 622.)

SUBJECT No. 558.

Mass education.

Mr. S. Seetharamiah, Shimoga taluk.

Summary of Representation.—Steps are being taken by Government for the extension of the education of the masses in the three R's. It is submitted that education according to the avocation of each class is likely to be more useful and beneficial to the people.

SUBJECT No. 559.

A Law School in Mysore.

Mr. M. Venkatakrishniah, Mysore City Municipal Council.

Summary of Representation.—It is requested that a Law School may be established in Mysore preparatory to its being raised to the status of a Law College.